Agent Advantages

Training

Our weekly live coaching sessions are conducted by a 30-year real estate industry veteran and provide practical information on market updates, investing in real estate, fix and flips, buy and hold investing, and 1031 Exchanges as well as answers to your pressing questions.

Tools and Technology

BTRG is committed to exploring new technology recommended by agents to help their businesses grow. Our tools include Podio CRM, Prospect Now (which uses a predictive algorithm to see who's ready to sell their home), Cole Realty Resource, Google Workforce, and Skip Tracing Support.

Marketing

We help you extend your market reach with social media training sessions and assistance creating campaigns, posts, and tags.

In-house Support

Our experienced real estate agents provide mentorship and are always available to answer questions and provide guidance.

Commissions

We offer some of the industry's best splits, which are negotiable based on an agent's experience level.

“

I'm so grateful for Rob's insight and responsiveness. As an agent, it's so important to have a broker that understands the daily life and professional challenges we face. He's always able to help with his advice and support when I need it most.

Become an Agent

A Foundation for Success

All real estate companies want to close deals with customers to sell more properties, but unless those companies invest in their agents, sales will plateau instead of grow. You may have even worked for one of those firms before. If so, you'll immediately see why Boston Trust Realty Group is different. We realized early on that our agents are the foundation of our business, and by supporting their growth, we also help our business and our customers.

What Sets Us Apart

While our competitors are focused on training agents, BTRG develops real estate entrepreneurs. Our firm has supported the growth of individuals who started with us as drivers, bank tellers, single mothers, and tradespeople and helped them become real estate millionaires. Because we are able to support their transition, our agents have a much deeper knowledge of sales and investing.

“

BTRG changed my life. Before joining, I struggled as an agent part-time, but within three years, I was a full-time agent and closed 10 deals. Rob also taught me how to do fix and flips and financed my first investment deal.

Success Story

One of our top agents joined the company in 2011 as a full-time taxi driver and part-time real estate agent. His sales grew to become his primary source of income. Over 10 years, he's sold over 100 properties, completed over 20 fix and flips, and has more than 40 rental units.
